Mr. William F. Friedman
310 2nd Street, S. E.
Washington, D. C.

Dear Mr. Friedman:

Inclosed herewith is the agenda for the meeting of the National Security Agency Scientific Advisory Board to be held 22-23 May 1958. The minutes of the last meeting will be available at this meeting and are not inclosed because of their classification.

I hope that your schedule will permit you to join us for the meetings on these two days.

Arrangements are being made for those members who will need transportation to Fort Meade on the mornings of the 22nd and 23rd to assemble at the Naval Security Station, 3801 Nebraska Ave., N.W. at 8:30 A.M., where staff cars will be available. Board members will be brought back to the Naval Security Station at the end of each day's session.

 This correspondence may be declassified upon removal of the inclosure.

Sincerely,

S. KULLBACK
Executive Secretary
NSA Scientific Advisory Board
